The following is a brief description of the types of work Local No. 58 members perform, but our scope is not limited to:

HVAC Systems, Air Veyor Systems, Exhaust Systems and Air Handling Systems

- Preparation of CAD or manual drawings used in shop fabrication and field erection
- Manufacture, Fabrication and installation of all metal work and all other materials used in lieu of metal
- Lagging over insulation and duct lining
- Testing, adjusting and balancing of air handling equipment and duct work

Architectural Sheet Metal

- Metal roofing, siding and louvers
- Metal coping, flashing, roof flanges and gravel stops
- Gutters and downspouts
- Skylights

Industrial Sheet Metal Work

- Exhaust, smog control, air pollution and recovery systems
- Breeching for boiler, heaters, and furnaces
- Chutes, hoppers, machine guards, cyclones, fans, blowers, dust collecting systems, ovens and dryer

Kitchen Equipment

- Ranges and hoods, work tables, steam tables, dishwashers, coffee urns, soda fountain, sinks, drain boards and serving stations
- Refrigerators and coolers
Metal Equipment

- Lockers, shelving and toilet partitions

Metal Ceilings

- Plain, ornamental or acoustic

Specialty Sheet Metal Work

Residential Sheet Metal Work

- HVACR
- Architectural Sheet Metal

And all other work included in the Jurisdictional claims of the Sheet Metal Workers International Association as contained in the SMWIA Constitution.